

1882-047 Chancery Causes. C. M. Parsons for to vs. John C. Olinger
Lee Co.

Kilgus

CA-Debt
T-Property

To the Hon Jno A. Kelly Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County in Chancery Sitting

Your Auditor C. M. Jarrons who sues for the benefit of Charles F. Kitson humbly complaining respectfully sheweth unto your honor heretofore to wit on the 21st day of July 1880. Your Auditor recovered a judgment against John C. Olinger before Henry C. Joslyn Esq. a Justice of the Peace of Lee County Va for the sum of 10⁰⁰ with interest thereon from the 10th day of December 1877 the said sum $1.00 for costs. Upon this judgment the said Justice issued his Writ of Fi Fa directed to a Constable of said County and the said Constable afterwards returned the same "no property found." A Copy of the said Judgment and Fi Fa and Constable's return is filed herewith marked "A" by which all the foregoing facts will more fully appear. Your Auditor further states that this judgment was duly docketed on the lien docket of Lee County. A copy of which docketing is here filed marked "B" as part of this bill.
Said judgment (no part of which has ever been paid) constitutes a lien upon the all real estate and interest in real estate owned by the said John C. Olinger at the rendition of the said judgment or subsequently acquired by him. But the amount of said judgment being less than 20¢ your Oration on the 20th day of December 1881 caused a written notice to be served on the said John C. Olinger notifying him that unless said judgment was fully paid off within 60 days from the day he (Olinger) was served with a copy of said notice, your Oration would institute this suit. Yet said Olinger wholly fails and refuses to pay said judgment or any part thereof although ~~said~~ ^{said} ~~judgment~~ ^{judgment} served with said notice more than 60 days before the date thereof of bringing this suit. A copy of said notice with the return thereon unsworn is heren filed marked "C" as part of this bill.

Your Oration now states that the said John C. Olinger is the owner and in possession of a valuable tract of land situated in Lee County, the same where the said Olinger now lives. The said profits whereof will soon pay your Oration's debt interest & costs.

The object of this bill therefore is to obtain a decree to rent the the aforesaid real Estate to satisfy your Oration's said judgment lien

And being without an adequate remedy at the Common Law your Oration prays is that the said John C. Olinger be made a party defendant to this bill that he answer the same on oath - that process issue & compell him to answer that on a hearing a decree be rendered to rent said real estate of said defendant for such length of time not exceeding five years as will pay your Oration's debt interest & costs. And that all such other further and general relief be afforded your Oration as to equity belongs or is due to the circumstances of his case And as in duty bound your Oration will ever pray &c - James C. Oration &c.

To J. C. Olinger:

Whereas on the 21st day of July 1880, at Jonesville Lee County Va. I as assignee of Holdway Kilgore recovered, before Henry C. Joslyn Esq. a Justice of the said County of Lee, a judgment against you for the sum of $10. with interest thereon from the 10th day of Dec 1877 till paid and $1.00 for my costs, and whereas an execution issued upon said judgment and has been returned "No property found" and no part of said judgment having been paid and the whole thereof being still justly due and owing, you are therefore hereby notified that unless said judgment be fully paid off within 60 days from the time you are served with a copy of this notice, I shall institute a Chancery suit in the Circuit Court of Lee County for the benefit of Charles F. Kilgore to enforce the lien of said judgment.
